(1) What is CORRN?

a. A new chip that tastes like fresh corn on the cob
b. Correction Operations Regional Reporting Network
c. Colorado Rapid Response Network

(2) What is a Holding Room

a. The first room in the detention center where arrested immigrants are processed.
b. An ICE office.
c. A room at a local police station where immigrants are held until processed by ICE.

(3) Once arrested, a detained immigrant has what rights?
a. An attorney
b. Due Process for alleged crimes.
c. Right to apply for asylum.

(4) What is ICE policy regarding children?
a. Children are kept with the parent or parents when they are detained.
b. Social Services is notified and children are taken to foster care.
c. Children can be left with a trusted caregiver as determined by ICE.

(5) What is a Parent/Family Workshop for Immigrants

a. A workshop explaining how to know your rights.
b. A workshop where an immigrant at risk for arrest designates a caregiver for children.
c. A meeting for family members of people who have been detained.

(1) c. Colorado Rapid Response Network. CORRN is a 24-hour hotline for ICE sightings or suspected ICE encounters. CORRN is staffed by volunteer dispatchers who take down information and send alerts to trained responders who live close by to the ICE sighting. Responders go to the site to confirm ICE presence, document agents actions and information about the detained person. Several Common Flame members are CORRN trained.

(2) b. An ICE office usually located in a strip mall without any obvious identification. These offices do not have beds, kitchens and limited bathroom facilities. There are nine ICE hold rooms in Colorado. Although supposedly detainees are held for a few hours pending transport, ICE's own data revealed for 2026: At the Centennial Field Office, 32 people were held over 24 with one person being held for 5 days. At the Frederick Hold Room 3 people were held overnight. At the Alamosa Hold Room one person was held for 6 days.

(3) None of the above. Immigrants in the US who are fighting deportation do not have the right to an attorney. Many of them are forced to figure out the legal system on their own. Many detainees have entered the US with a requestion for asylum but do not have the right to stay out of detention while that case is pending (often without a lawyer). There is not due process for suspected criminal activity.

(4) a. This was the original policy, and some children are kept with parents and sent to family detention centers. Detention centers are similar to prisons (without cells) run by for-profit corporations However, there is evidence that this "policy" is not followed. Some children are arrested without a parent. There were an estimated 1177 Children in detention in July 2026 and since 2024 ICE has arrested more than 8500 children. The Brookings Institute estimated 205,000 children have been affected by the loss of a parent and 35,000 children left with no parent. These children are cared for by family, friends, neighbors, and extreme cases of violent ex partners. Most of the caregivers are struggling financially and emotionally to care for unexpected children.

(5) b. With the help of translators, notaries, and volunteers with legal information, families fill out documents designating who will care for their children if they are arrested and what will happened to personal property. As you might imagine, this is a terrifying step for any parent. Margie Robinson at Common Flame has organized one of these workshops.
